If that is true, then why is summer so busy?

Hard to believe it is already the first of August, school will start soon and then Christmas is right around the corner. July, was for me, a bit different. On June 30th I was suppose to be on an airplane headed to work with brother and sister Austin in Ukraine. Due to an unforeseen medical complication I was unable to make the trip. The team was still able to go and accomplish all the Lord had planned. The report being that camp was a great success, praise the Lord. The Lord does not need me to accomplish His plans.

The last week of July was our church camp. I am the camp director, so I used the time that I was suppose to be in Ukraine to finalize all the camp details. My daughter is my assistant and does much of the behind the scenes work. Jessica does an amazing job! Bro. Justin Ross, missionary to Brazil, was our speaker this year and did an outstanding job bringing the word of God each night. This years theme was Anchored, Heb. 6:19

The last weekend of July was the Missio Dei Conference held at the Bellflower church in Bellflower CA. I was asked to present a workshop on Mission trips. The conference was Friday night and Saturday all day. There was preaching, worship music, a Q & A session, five workshops and of course food and great fellowship.

Planning is pretty much done for the up coming Africa trip, where I will be working with Bro. Chuck Fernandez in Kenya. After that is the MMS Florida banquet in October. Planning is under way for 2017 with current invitations to Romania, Honduras, and possibly Brazil.

See you on the field...
