LORD is always good. His mercies endureth.....

Dear Co-Laborers,

In October, just before we left for the teaching and medical trip to Cuba, Bro. Harold Williams, co-founder and radio voice for The Macedonian Call broadcast, had a nasty fall. He was in the hospital and rehab for a time in California. After returning from Cuba, Carole and I went to California to visit Bro. Harold and his wife, Anne. By that time he was doing much better, and a week after we returned home, he was able to drive himself home from the physical therapy center and walked into the house without a cane. He has improved a lot, but still needs our prayers.

We also visited with Gary Weidenbach, Mac-Trips Director, and Pam, his wife, while there. Pam seems to be tolerating the chemo treatments okay. She has one more treatment in December; please continue to pray for her.

While on the airplane from Atlanta to California, a man sat beside me and I was able to witness to him about the Lord and talk about his needs. When we landed in California, he said to me, "Now I know why I gave up my seat to someone else and sat by you." He asked me to send him literature on some of the things we discussed. I received an email from him saying he had received the literature and how much he was enjoying the study.

We had a wonderful Thanksgiving weekend with Carol's two daughters and their families. On Thanksgiving Sunday, Bro. Brandon Jones, preached at my church, Whetstone BC. After the services that morning, a seven-year-old young man, with his father at his side, came to me and said, "I want to talk to you." I said, "Okay, what do you want to talk about?" He said, "I want to get saved." After talking with him, he prayed and asked the Lord to save him. In the Sunday evening service, he came forward and asked to be baptized and join the church. The Lord willing, I am going to preach at Whetstone on Christmas morning, and the church has asked me to baptize my new brother in Christ, Payton Sewell, after the morning service. What a blessing!

Carole and I wish all of you a Merry CHRISTmas. We thank you for your prayers and financial support throughout the year!

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year,
 Leon
