Dear Co-Laborers,

January, a new beginning, but a continuation of our life and the Lord's ministry. On January 1st, I had the privilege of preaching at my home church, Whetstone Baptist. It was a good way to start the year. Carole and I went to Georgia to attend the wedding of her grandson, Josiah Teague. It was so nice to take part in a new beginning for the wedded couple. We pray God's richest blessings on them.

After returning home, Carole made a trip back to Georgia and joined her sister. They drove to Mississippi and met four cousins. They enjoyed spending time together, catching up on the years.

I have been at home, catching up on things and spending time in the office. The builders all have been busy working in Alabama. Volunteers are working on the Mission Home at Evening Shade Park. Funds are still needed to pay for the materials. Please consider being a part of this great opportunity.

Modern Security Systems donated the total security system, installation of the system, and is also covering our protection plan. What a blessing! Thank you, David Morris, and the team at Modern Security.

Vehicles continue to be donated, and we have several projects being considered for their usage. It has been a blessed beginning to 2017. At the end of the month, I will be traveling to Mt. Pleasant, Texas, for the Faith Promise Missions Conference held by Nevills Chapel MBC. I look forward to sharing with you next month about the blessings this conference will bring.

God Bless,
 Leon Jasper
