"I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God: in Him will I trust." Psalms 91:2

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This year may my resolution be - Him I will trust more. May we toe the line of faith tightly knowing we have a refuge and fortress. The New Year begins...The opportunities to serve the Lord this year are going to be ample. The opportunity to change the world for Christ is in front of us. May we all make it more personal this year to advance Christ. Let's spend less energy on making a living and more energy on making a way for Christ to be known. Resolve to set goals for the kingdom of Christ. A man once told me, Brant if you want to do a great work for Christ this is how... Plan your work for Christ...your home missions, your interstate missions and your foreign missions. Then work everything else around it and you will find that there will be much accomplished for the kingdom. May we not forget what Jesus said in John 9:4. I must work the works of Him that sent me, while it is day; the night cometh, when no man can work. May God bless your 2019.

Thanks be to God for all of you who faithfully support the ministry of Macedonian. Through your support God allowed many professions of faith through this ministry. It is because of people and churches like you that all this is even possible. When I look into this coming year the task seems to be impossible, but I am reminded that it looked the same way last year. Please pray the ministry can continue to press the gospel forward. Thank you to those who gave Christmas offerings to our family and who wrote cards of encouragement.

We have many upcoming projects. I hope to have them nailed down to be in the February newsletter. The Oklahoma project will not happen in February but should sometime this year. Paul Lamb and I are working with churches in Romania, Mexico, Montana, Arkansas, Kentucky, Florida and Oklahoma. God Bless!!!!

For His Honor,
 Brant Lane
