March 2019

The month of February was a month of firsts...

For the first time, my wife Greta was able to accompany me in my travels. She received a real lesson in Macedonian Missionary Service travel schedule. January 31 was her last day of work. After 31 years of work for Mack Trucks, she retired. I picked her up at work and we had lunch with friends. Then we left our home in Georgia for our new home in Kentucky. We spent the night in Kentucky and left the next morning for Arkansas. Sunday morning, February 3rd, I was blessed to preach at Providence Landmark BC in Fordyce, AR. Pastor Brian Caldwell and the fine folks there are planning to build a new church building and I was happy to meet with them and talk about the Macedonian Builders. Lord willing, we will be assisting them with their new building July 6-20 of this year. Please pray for them as they undertake this work.

Then that same Sunday evening I was honored to speak at Holly Springs MBC in Star City, AR. Holly Springs has been a huge supporter of this ministry as my co-sponsoring church for several years. Their friendship is precious to us. After Arkansas we went to Minden, Louisiana and parked our travel trailer at the seminary and met Pastor Joey Anding from Shady Oaks BC in Choudrant, Louisiana. We enjoyed getting to know Joey, his wife Lisa, and their sweet daughter Faith as well as all the folks at Shady Oaks. We looked over their partially completed building and the work that is required to finish it and move in. We spoke to the church on Wednesday evening and we hope to help them with their project in the future. I'm sure this small congregation would appreciate any financial assistance toward completion of their building.

Thursday morning the 7th of February we arrived at Nevills Chapel MBC in Mt. Pleasant, TX for their annual faith promise missions conference. This is always a great time to see old friends and make new ones, as missionaries from all over are welcome to come and present their work. Pastor Glenn Griffith and the folks there always treat us great. Good people, good food, and great singing from the Mattingly Family each evening as well as great and challenging messages from my friend and fellow Macedonian, Brant Lane. The following Sunday, I was blessed to preach at Liberty BC in McKinney, TX. I have visited there several times and Pastor Kevin Clinton has always been a great host. They also are looking to the future with possible building plans. AMEN! That means they are growing and God is working in McKinney, TX. From McKinney, I went to The Colony, TX to visit with my brother Jim for a few days. It is always good to see family and relax a while. Please continue to pray for Jim's health. He has been battling cancer and really needs our prayers.

After a few days in the Dallas area, Greta and I drove to the Houston area to Visit with Pastor Danny Mendoza and the people of Creekmont MBC in LaPorte, TX. We were in LaPorte for four days. We had a great time with family that we hadn't seen in years, and I was honored to preach at Creekmont on Sunday morning the 17th. Creekmont is a loving church and a great supporter of missions. Many of them have accompanied Macedonian Missionary Service on several medical and building trips. I want to thank them for their friendship and hospitality.

We have returned to Georgia for some rest and personal business. We are leaving tomorrow for North Carolina, then to Kentucky, then Tennessee, then back to Georgia for the state meeting on March 15-16-17.

Your prayers are appreciated.

Thankfully, Faithfully, Sincerely in His service,
 Paul Lamb
