

From the desk of

Missionary Brandon Jones

MacTech Coordinator

working with

March 2020

February afforded me the opportunity to travel to Texarkana to work with the Secretary-Treasurer of Missions office to setup Online Giving for the missions office. I pray that this will be a tremendous asset to the work of ABA Missions. While I was working there, Larry Elmore, the Promotions Director at Bogard Press, gave Amanda, Caleb, and Kaylee a tour of the press. They really enjoyed seeing how our literature gets printed!

Later that day we traveled to Mount Pleasant, Texas for the Nevill's Chapel Faith Promise Missions Conference. It was great to see the wonderful folks of Nevill's Chapel again, and also many of the Macedonian brethren, and the other missionaries. I was given the opportunity to preach Thursday morning's message, and throughout the week to hear messages from George Dever, Brant Lane and Eddie Williams.

While at the meeting, we experienced some issues with my wife's vehicle and were stranded at the hotel the first morning. We have been having an intermittent issue with it not starting for a few months now. Mechanics have been unable to resolve the issue. Please pray with us that we can get this issue resolved so that my wife will have a reliable vehicle again.

I would like to share one other need with you, if I may. Although I am the MacTech Coordinator, this ministry does not have a computer, nor do I own a personal computer of my own. All work that I do is performed at the church where I serve as Associate Pastor from the church's computer in my office. Many times I find myself communicating over the phone with pastors or missionaries late into the evening when I am already at home, and then must go back to the church to work. If I could purchase a computer to be kept at home as a home office, that would allow me to work much more efficiently. Please pray about this need.

March will begin with more travel for the MacTech ministry. I will be presenting the work, discussing audio/video options, and preaching at Eastside in Gary, Texas on Wednesday, March 4, giving an update and preaching at White Rock in Center, Texas on the morning of March 8, and sharing with Eastside in Minden, Louisiana in the evening service about Online Giving. March 16-28, I will be traveling to Israel with a group from Hyde Park Baptist Church. Please keep us in your prayers.

God Bless,
Brandon Jones
