Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Psalm 4:8- I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, Lord, only makest me dwell in safety. A believer's pillow may not always be soft and but his sleep is sweet. The world has no peace, but the child of God does. The security of heaven IS the greatest peace. Let this peace keep our hearts as we serve Him together.

This month of being at home has been a change of gears for us. It has allowed me to catch up around the house and enjoy some time with my family. I praise God we have all stayed well and enjoyed our home time tremendously. Michelle has wrapped up school with the kids and I have worked on some neglected spots around the house. We thank God that no matter if travelling or homebound He guides our steps and brings fulfillment to our lives.

I am proud to announce that Brother Gheorge Cormos has been able to raise the funds that he needed for the Romania project. We were disappointed to have to postpone the project and look forward to setting up another trip in the future. However, the building project in Kentucky at Pinehill Baptist Church has been set to happen June 6-13. We were thankful to get to reschedule it so quickly. We are looking forward to helping them do an addition to their building. The building project in Farmington, New Mexico is still on for September. We will do exterior repairs to Landmark Missionary Baptist Church's fellowship hall.

I am excited about what God has next for the ministry. This month we had a visit from the Ward family. They live in Bogata, Texas and their oldest son is a mechanic and has felt led to work with the Macedonian Mechanics. Please pray for Jacob Ward as he prepares to intern with the mechanics and start seminary. We are excited about all people following the will of God, but when our young people step out it is a special thing.

Prayer Request

1. Please pray for Missionary Kevin Cooper as they work in Des Moines, Iowa to find a permanent meeting spot
2. Please pray for Missionary Gheorge Cormos as he continues to work on his building project in Romania
3. Please pray for Macedonian radio Broadcast as it looks to raise the funds to expand into some new areas
4. Please pray for a location to set up a new Macedonian Mechanic shop in East Texas

For His Honor,

Brant Lane
